CUTS THROAT OF WIFE. SENSATIONAL SUICIDE.

Jugular Severed Without One Moment's Warning.

SON SAW TRAGIC WORK.

Mrs. McDonald Was Untying Package Containing a Shirt She Had Bought For Her Husband When the Crime Took Place.

Pittsburg Sept. 21.—"I have your letters. We both must die!"

With this exclamation, Talbot McDonald, aged thirty-three, a chemist who arrived from England two months ago, sprang at his wife's throat in their apartments at 825 Beech avenue, Allegheny, and inflicted wounds with a razor from which she died in a few minutes. He then drank laudanum and is at the Allegheny General hospital in a serious condition.

The dead woman, who was about thirty, under the name of Mme. Besie McDonald, gave spiritualistic sittings, calling herself on her professional cards a "spiritual adviser."

The cause of the tragedy is wrapped in mystery. Whether it is due to jealousy of another man, perhaps the woman's first husband, or to disputes over whose child should live with them, it is difficult to tell. McDonald had also been previously married and has two children in England.

The murder and attempted suicide was witnessed by John Smith, the eight-year-old son of the dead woman. McDonald being her second husband.

As Mrs. McDonald and her boy returned to the house after a visit to Pittsburg they found McDonald sitting on the front steps. He greeted them pleasantly. The wife told her husband she had purchased a shirt for him. He expressed a desire to see it, and followed her to their apartments on the third floor. The boy says that just as his mother was untying the package containing the shirt McDonald jerked open a drawer of the bureau and sprang upon her with a razor, severing the jugular vein. Mrs. McDonald staggered into the hall.

Peter Dow, who leases the house, was coming out of his room on the same floor. With blood fairly raining from her frightful wounds the woman fell into his arms. He carried her into his room, where, he says, she expired without giving utterance to a sound of any kind.

Then McDonald turned his attention to himself. Without looking for the woman or making any inquiry, he drained a six-ounce bottle of laudanum, put on his hat and left the house. He went to a drugstore, where he was arrested.

PARTIAL ADMISSION.

Independent Operator Says Tilford Ought to Know.

Pittsburg, Sept. 21.—A. D. Miller, Jr., of A. D. Miller & Sons, independent oil refiners, with headquarters at this city, admitted that there was some kind of an agreement between the independent oil refineries and the Standard Oil company. He declined, however, to discuss the agreement in detail.

When Mr. Miller's attention was called to the testimony of Treasurer Tilford of the Standard Oil company in the suit of the government for dissolution of the alleged oil combine of New Jersey, in which the latter admitted that in 1903 an agreement was entered into by which the independent dealers were to sell the entire output of oil referred to the Standard, to be exported, and the Standard, in return, to sell to the independent companies a certain amount of crude oil each day, he replied, "Tilford ought to know."

Mr. Miller denied story in the hearing, that A. D. Miller & Sons on one occasion complained to W. B. Wall, head of the Petroleum association of Cleveland, that the Standard Oil company objected to the Pittsburg corporations selling refined oil to any other exporting firm. "We never made any such complaint," said Mr. Miller.

JAPS ESCORTED AWAY.

Notified That if They Return There Will Be Violence Committed.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 21.—Seventy-seven Japanese laborers, says a dispatch to the Oregonian from Seattle, who arrived at Attin to work in the mines, were escorted to the river by 300 white men, placed on a steamer and started back toward Vancouver. White miners served notice upon the Japs that if they did not stay away violence would result, that no Asiatic laborers could work in the diggings.

Little Girl Fatally Scalded.

York, Pa., Sept. 21.—While watching her mother can tomatoes, Mildred Hanks, five years old, was fatally scalded. Mrs. Hanks had filled a jar with the boiling vegetables and after screwing on the top inverted it to see if there was a leakage. The jar burst and the contents poured over the little child.

Kicked to Death by Horse.

Guthrie, Sept. 21.—On his father's farm, near here, Daniel Ropp, ten years old, was kicked to death by a horse.

Mrs. Carter Ends Existence In Dramatic Manner.

CALLS ON WEALTHY MAN.

Latter, Owing to His Being Ill, Could Not Gratify Request of Woman and Converse With Her, and She Enters House and Takes Own Life.

New York, Sept. 21.—After pleading in vain to be permitted to see John M. White, a wealthy man, at whose house she had called, Mrs. Margaret Carter shot and killed herself Friday. She died in a room adjoining that in which White was in bed, and, according to his attendants, very ill. It is said Mrs. Carter went to White's house and asked to see him. She seemed to be greatly agitated when told White was too ill to see her. She was then taken into the house and conducted to a room.

Mrs. Carter was a member of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and of the Bide-A-Wee Home association, and lived in comfortable circumstances in West Twenty-ninth street, alone, except for two small dogs.

In the Bide-A-Wee Home enterprise she was associated with many women whose names are familiar to society. Mrs. William Astor Chanler, who was Minnie Ashley, the actress, was an intimate friend, and she was well acquainted with theatrical people.

Mrs. John Gay White was Grace Hoffman, prominent in society, and much interested in schools as well as in charity. She had just returned from the White summer home at Bar Harbor. She said that Mrs. Carter came to the house asking for her, and not for her husband.

FOURTEEN FATALITIES.

Cage Filled With Miners Falls to the Bottom of the Shaft.

Marquette, Mich., Sept. 21.—A cage filled with men being lowered into a mine at Negaunee fell to the bottom of the shaft and fourteen men were killed and a number injured. The steel cable broke and the cage dropped 700 feet. The bodies have been taken out and the injured are being cared for. The mine is the property of the Jones, MacLaughlin Steel company of Pittsburg.

The cage with its human freight was being lowered on its first trip for the day when the brake on the hoisting drum suddenly failed to work. Two other men sprang to the assistance of the man at the brake wheel, but their combined efforts did not avail. The cage shot down 200 feet before a kink in the too rapidly paying out cable caused it to stop, and from that point the cage had a sheer drop to the bottom of the shaft.

Workmen at the bottom immediately set about the gruesome task of removing the dead. The bones of the bodies were so shattered that the men were pilled on top of each other like so many pelts of leather. Seven men were found still alive.

LADY MURDEDED.

Linen Twisted Around Throat and She Was Choked to Death.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—Mrs. Lillian White Grant, a kindergarten teacher in the public schools, was found dead in bed in her home on Madison avenue, and the indications are that she was murdered. The room showed signs of a struggle, and around the woman's throat was tightly twisted a piece of linen with which she had been choked to death.

Mrs. Grant's pocketbook, rifled of its contents, was found in the office of a physician, fifty feet distant from the house in which she lived. The police are looking for a negro man who did jobs around the neighborhood.

PINKERTON WAS WEALTHY.

Leaves an Estate Valued at Three Million Dollars.

New York, Sept. 21.—The will of Robert Allan Pinkerton, head of the Pinkerton detective agency, who died Aug. 12 on the steamship Bremen, has been filed in the Surrogate court of Kings county. It makes disposition of an estate valued at $3,000,000. Nearly all the property is left to his widow, his son, Allan, and two daughters.

Denied by Bishop Berry.

Milwaukee, Sept. 21.—Bishop Joseph F. Berry of Buffalo, who at Milwaukee is presiding over the conference of German Methodists and who was quoted as criticising President Roosevelt for alleged drinking of intoxicating liquors in the home of Vice President Fairbanks at Indianapolis, has made absolute denial that he ever made such a statement in Detroit.

Nearly Thirty Thousand Out.

St. Louis, Sept. 21.—The strike of shoe cutters has resulted in a general strike of shoe workers, and eighteen shoe factories in St. Louis, employing nearly 30,000 workmen, are idle. The general strike was called in sympathy with the shoe cutters' strike.

An example of the value of local manufacturing enterprises, which are under the necessity of paying out large sums of money for labor, is found in the Bryan oil mill which is now running twenty-four hours a day, employing forty hands and paying out about $450 per week for wages. The mill is crushing fifty-two tons of seed per day, and the management is gratified with the patronage and support it is receiving. The compress also has a large weekly pay roll, as have a number of other local enterprises according to their needs. The Eagle will be glad to see the day when a cotton mill is added to our facilities for handling cotton, and the week end wage list is increased tenfold.

FOSTER'S WEATHER BULLETIN.

(Copyrighted by W. T. Foster.)
Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—Last bulletin gave forecasts of disturbance to cross continent 17 to 21, warm wave 16 to 20, cool wave 19 to 23. Next disturbance will reach Pacific coast about 22, cross west of the Rockies country by close of 23, great central valleys 24 to 26, eastern states 27. Warm wave will cross west of Rockies about 22, great central valleys 24, Cool wave will cross west of Rockies about 25, great central valleys 27, eastern states 29.

This disturbance will come between two periods of very low temperatures and while for a day or two, the temperatures of the disturbance will go to high degrees, the average of a few days of the highest temperatures will be only moderate. Before and after this disturbance passes the temperatures will be unusually low.

Much radical weather may be expected during the fall and winter months and this disturbance will be of more than usual force in all its features. Rainfall will increase over the two weeks preceding.

Last disturbance of Sept. will reach Pacific coast about 26, cross west of the Rockies country by close of 27, great central valleys 28 to 30, eastern states Oct. 1. Warm wave will cross west of Rockies about 26, great central valleys 28, eastern states 30. Cool wave will cross west of Rockies about 29, great central valleys Oct. 1, eastern states 3.

Temperatures of this disturbance will average much lower than those of the preceding and the cool wave will be a cold wave causing a fall of 20 degrees or more and carrying freezing temperatures and frosts further south than is usual for this season of the year.

The storms of the preceding disturbance will continue to develop more than usual intensities and those of this disturbance will be of the radical class. During the last days of Sept. and first days of Oct. a large high will develop on the continent causing a great fall in temperatures. This high with its frosts is expected to nip the top

FOR AN ARTESIAN WELL.

A business man of this city who is interested in the subject of an artesian well for Bryan informs the Eagle that he will be one of 100 men to subscribe fifty dollars each to the enterprise. This sum in the aggregate would amount to $5000, and would go a long way towards securing a flowing well.

The city might supplement the fund, and in all probability, with a good live committee in charge of the proposition, more money could be raised by subscription. In the opinion of the Eagle a good sized fund will have to be raised before the enterprise can be put on foot, and the sooner it is done the better.

growth of cotton in northern sections of the cotton belt.

About and immediately following Sept. 21 a great high will bring very cool weather to most of the continent and carry killing frosts far southward. All the features that go to make up what is commonly called weather, will be radical about that time, but the frosts will be the feature of the greatest interest, particularly to the corn and spring wheat sections.

SAVES BOY FROM DEATH.

Little One Was Impaled by an Infuriated Cow.

Beaumont, Sept. 21.—With her six-year-old child high in the air, dangling on the horns of an excited and infuriated cow, Mrs. George Rainey rushed to the rescue of her child and snatched him from the horns, just as the cow was about to dash the child to the earth.

The act was as brave as it was dangerous, and today Mrs. Rainey is the heroine on the Port Arthur road in the vicinity of Spindle Top, where the incident took place.

The child was playing in the cow lot, and wandered too near a cow, which had given birth to a calf the day before. Instantly the cow rushed after the child, and with one sweep of the head fastened one horn beneath the left jaw of the child and raised it high in the air.

It was at this moment of peril that the mother came to the rescue. Without screaming or other display of emotion the mother lost no time in rushing to the scene and bravely talking hold of the child and rescuing him from his dangerous plight.

The horn of the cow caught the child in the fleshy part of the left jaw. It penetrated upward and came near tearing away the root of the child's tongue. A physician was summoned and immediately revealed that the child will recover, though its voice may be impaired.

WILL STAY DRY.

Grayson County Precincts Are to Remain Unchanged.

Austin, Sept. 21.—In answer to a letter from G. W. Porter of Sherman, the attorney general's department held that should Grayson county vote against prohibition at the coming local option election the precincts that were prohibition territory prior to the time of county prohibition would remain so. The department also holds that when local option is in force in a precinct by virtue of an election held therein, a subsequent election for the entire county resulting against prohibition does not repeal local option in each precinct.

Penitentiary railroad bonds to the amount of $150,000 which were authorized by special act of the Thirtieth legislature for the purpose of extending the state railroad out of Rusk, were pronounced good by the attorney general.

FANCLONAL FIGHT.

Democrats Could Not Agree and Two Tickets Were Nominated.

Hoboken, Sept. 21.—The Democratic city convention developed into a fight between factions in which delegates used their fists, chairs and other objects. The police tried to stop the fight, but were outnumbered. After the fight the delegates held separate conventions on the same stage, and named two city tickets. The trouble started over the efforts of adherents of Patrick J. Griffin, who aspires to be leader of the party in this city, to defeat Maurice J. Stack and his supporters.

GOEBEL'S SLAYER.

Turner Igo Is the Individual, So Deposes a Lady.

Richmond, Ind., Sept. 21.—Turner Igo of Farmers, Rowan county, Kentucky, is charged with killing of Hon. William Goebel of Kentucky in an affidavit by Mrs. Lulu Clark, which is published exclusively by the Richmond Item. If Mrs. Clark's affidavit was taken at Indianapolis April 11, 1907, in the law office of former Governor W. S. Taylor of Kentucky. She is a niece of Judge Frank Day of Frenchburg, Ky., and also of James Williams of the same place. She has a cousin named Gertrude King, who lived at Maysville. At time of Goebel's murder the two girls went to Frankford. They started to enter the state house by a rear entrance and when on the steps a shot was fired. At the same time they noticed a man standing just inside the door, whom they recognized as Sanford. In a minute a second man came running out of the building dressed like a mountaineer and carrying a rifle. He ran to Sanford and said: "I got the —." That man was recognized by the affiant as her friend, Turner Igo. Both men ran out of the building to the fence, where Sanford gave a pair of shoes which he was carrying to Igo, who exchanged boots for them. The man then disappeared.

The affiant states that Igo told her at Mount Sterling Jan. 25, 1900, he was going to kill Goebel and she saw him afterwards at Jeffersonville, Ind., and he reminded her that he had fulfilled his promise. She also says Sanford told Gertrude King a few days prior to Goebel's murder that he intended killing Goebel, saying: "Here is my chance to get revenge. The legislature has met."

NOTHING TO ARBITRATE.

So Say Officials of Western Union and Postal Telegraph Companies.

New York, Sept. 21.—General Superintendent Brooks of the Western Union Telegraph company says that his company has nothing to arbitrate. "We have all the men we desire," said Mr. Brooks, "and there is no need for us to seek to secure the services of the men who left the employ of the company. Furthermore, we will never again tolerate the conditions that existed before the strike. The action of the union operators before the strike in deliberately interfering with the business of the company and in abusing those who failed to join their organization will never occur again in the operating rooms of the Western Union. There are 175 operators who were employed in this city by this company before the strike who will never again secure work with the company. They are all trouble-makers."

Edward J. Nail, vice president and general manager of the Postal Telegraph and Cable company, sent the following telegram to all Postal general superintendents and superintendents: "There is not the slightest ground for the report that we are to arbitrate with the striking telegraphers. Notify all offices and assure all that there will be no compromise, and to pay no heed to reports to the contrary."

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

Were Let For the Construction of Five Torpedoboot Destroyers.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Secretary Metcalf awarded the contracts for the construction of five torpedoboot destroyers, provision for which was made by the last congress, and bids for which were opened at the navy department about a month ago. The following were the successful bidders: William Cramp & Sons, two ships, at $585,000 each; the Bath Ironworks, two ships, at $624,000 each; the New York Shipbuilding company, one ship, at $645,000.

The hulls of all these vessels are to be on plans prepared by the navy department, and the machinery on plans prepared by the bidders. Turbine machinery of the Parsons type is to be installed in all the ships.

SIXTY-THREE KILLED.

It Is Charged American Engineers Is to Blame.

City of Mexico, Sept. 21.—Forty persons were killed and thirty-four injured in a collision between a south-bound El Paso express and a north-bound freight on the Mexican Central railroad at El Carnacion de dios, fifty kilometers south of Aguascalientes. All the killed and injured, except Engineer McFarland of the passenger train, are Mexicans, who were returning home from a national fiesta.

The trains met on a curve. The freight crew, charged with having disobeyed orders, has disappeared.

Fuller details of the wreck say the number of deaths is sixty-three and injured forty-three. Many of the latter are in a serious condition. The engineer of the freight train, an American named Brock, is said to have confessed to disobedience of orders. Brock and the conductor of the freight train, Randleman, attempted to escape across the country after the accident. They were captured by a squad of soldiers, and are now in prison. The Mexican laws hold them strictly responsible. The two trains met in a deep cut on a curve, going at full speed. The passenger train was ten hours late. The two engines and the first four coaches of the passenger train were telescoped.

IN SIGHT OF HOME.

Young Man Takes Poison While Returning From Panama.

Denton, Tex., Sept. 21.—Within sight of his home, from which he had been absent on the Isthmus of Panama for over a year, Fulton McElhannon, a member of a well known family in this county and son of the late J. F. McElhannon, drank carbolic acid, dying ten minutes later. McElhannon, who was about twenty-eight years of age, drank the poison in the presence of the other passengers just as the Frisco train was pulling into Prosper, his destination. Nothing could be done to save his life.

In his pocket was found a note addressed to Bose McElhannon, his brother, saying:

"I am sorry, but I have to depart from this life. Give me the best burial possible. Tell Anna (his sister) that if she wants my trunk, it is in Houston. Good-bye to you all. This is my misfortune only."
